

Sing a Little Song for a Bug

Words and Music by Philip G. Ney

The musical score is written on a single treble clef staff in the key of A major (two sharps) and 4/4 time. It consists of four lines of music. The first line begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps, and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is composed of quarter and eighth notes. Chords are indicated above the staff: A, E, E7, and A. The lyrics are: "Ch: Sing a lit-tle song for a bug, bug. Sing a lit-tle song with our son." The second line continues the melody with chords A7, D, A, E7, A, and A. The lyrics are: "Sing a lit-tle song with a bug, bug, and sing it all day long. 1. What are you do-ing," The third line has chords E, E7, A, A7, and D. The lyrics are: "An - gus, Cut-ting down those trees. Don't you know us lit-tle ___ bugs" The fourth line has chords A, E7, and A. The lyrics are: "live in them thar leaves. (So!)"

Ch: Sing a lit-tle song for a bug, bug. Sing a lit-tle song with our son.

Sing a lit-tle song with a bug, bug, and sing it all day long. 1. What are you do-ing,

An - gus, Cut-ting down those trees. Don't you know us lit-tle ___ bugs live in them thar leaves. (So!)

2. What are you doing, Mama,
Making all that noise?
Don't you know it frightens,
All us little boys.

3. Gentle Jesus, meek and mild,
Look upon our little child.
Pity his simplicity,
And suffer him to come to Thee.
